You are required to provide proof of a valid certificate of currency / policy for travel insurance to cover this travel period. No documents will be provided until we are satisfied that a current certificate of insurance is provided. We reserve our right to determine what 'adequate' travel insurance is. In the event that 'adequate' travel insurance cannot be provided then you acknowledge that your travel arrangements will be cancelled and all monies paid will be forfeited. We can provide you with general information about the travel insurance options available to you prior to your booking.

10. All travellers must have a valid passport for international travel with at least 6 months validity from the date of return with a machine-readable passport. When assisting you with a booking we will assume that all travellers on the booking have a valid Australian passport. If this is not the case, you must let us know. It is important that you ensure that you have valid passports, visas and re-entry permits which meet the requirements of immigration and other government authorities. Any fines, penalties, payments or expenditures incurred as a result of such documents not meeting the requirements of those authorities will be your sole responsibility (except to the extent caused by fault on our part). If you need information regarding visas, passports and other travel document requirements for your trip, please let us know. We can provide you with general information on visa and passport requirements that apply to international travel bookings you make with us.

11. It is your responsibility to check with your travel consultant whether any visas are required if travelling on anything other than an Australian passport.

12. All third parties listed in this publication including but not limited to South African Airways, Personal Africa, hotels, tour and transport providers, do not by virtue of their endorsements of this brochure represent themselves as contracting with you. You agree that your contract for the purchase of a holiday is with Funda.

13. You acknowledge that Funda is not a hotel supplier, air carrier, coach carrier, or tour operator and all travel arrangements comprised in your holiday are subject to the terms and conditions of the third parties.

14. Due to travel in safari vehicles and on smaller aircraft within Southern Africa, there are luggage restrictions of a maximum of 20 kg per person in a SOFT bag.

15. Every endeavour has been made to ensure that the contents of this itinerary are correct and accurate at the time of printing. However, details may have changed since publication - please make sure you check with us prior to booking any holiday.

16. The standard of accommodation and other services are based on the various factors which are generally accepted as indicative of a certain class or rating. Please note, however that the standard of hotel varies from country to country and may differ from Asian, American and Australian Hotels. Whilst the hotels and accommodation used in this tour are of a superior standard with superior amenities and public areas, we do not represent or guarantee the standard, class or fitness for any particular purpose of that accommodation or service. You should check the travel arrangements and hotels booked on your behalf to ensure the quality and standard are those that you require.

17. We reserve the right to alter the itinerary in any way whatsoever, providing such changes are necessary to fulfil your holiday obligations. Substitutes of equivalent standards will be offered where possible.

18. Travel Risks are involved when participating in this travel. While we and activity providers make every effort to safeguard you from harm, we cannot be held responsible for personal injury or loss due to the actions of you that are beyond our control and reasonable endeavours. For example, but not limited to, many lodges in Africa are not fenced off and the areas travelled in have wild animals. Travelling in these areas has an inherent danger which you acknowledge. Whilst attacks are rare, no guarantee is made by Funda as to your safety. Neither Funda nor its employees are liable for any loss, injury or death that may occur resulting from such an attack.

19. We recommend that you contact the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade or visit their website at <http://www.smartraveller.gov.au> for general travel advice, as well as specific advice (including safety alert levels) relating to the destination you wish to visit. You should also register your travel plans with DFAT, so that you may be more easily contacted in an emergency.

20. This brochure comprises the whole agreement between the parties. You acknowledge that you have not relied on any representation warranty or condition (expressed or implied) which is not otherwise referred to in this publication, these terms or conditions or agreed to in writing by the directors of Funda.

21. To the extent permitted by law, we do not accept any liability in contract, tort or otherwise for any injury, damage, loss (including consequential loss), delay, additional expense or inconvenience caused directly or indirectly by the acts, omissions or default, whether negligent or otherwise, of third party providers over whom we have no direct control, force majeure or any other event which is beyond our control or which is not preventable by reasonable diligence on our part. Our liability will also be limited to the extent that any relevant international conventions, for example the Montreal Convention in respect of travel by air, the Athens Convention in respect of travel by sea, the Berne Convention in respect of travel by rail and the Paris Convention in respect of the provision of accommodation, limit the amount of compensation which can be claimed for death, injury, or delay to passengers and loss, damage and delay to luggage. Under circumstances where our liability cannot be excluded and where liability may be lawfully limited, such liability is limited to the remedies required of us under applicable law (including the Australian Consumer Law). This liability clause is subject to your rights under the Australian Consumer Law and nothing in these terms and conditions is intended to limit any rights you may have under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth).

22. Unless otherwise noted your travel documents in relation to this holiday will be provided to you 2 weeks prior to departure.

23. Surcharges will apply to all payments made by credit cards and we reserve the right to charge administration/service fees for payments made by credit cards. Please confirm these charges prior to making payment by credit card.

24. This Agreement shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with laws at the time being in force in the State of Western Australia and each party submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Western Australia exercising jurisdiction in that State.

25. We respect your privacy and the personal information you provide to us with your booking form will be required to be disclosed to service providers on the tour, but only as is necessary to facilitate your arrangements. We will not be able to properly facilitate the booking, carriage and administration of your tour if you do not provide us with the information requested on the booking form. In particular, you agree that in certain circumstances (such as where you request us to book international travel for you), we are permitted to disclose your personal information to overseas recipients. Such recipients may include the overseas travel service providers (e.g. airlines, accommodation or tour providers) with whom you make a booking. These travel service providers will in most cases receive your personal information in the country in which they will provide the services to you or in which their business is based. We may also disclose your personal information to our overseas related entities and to service providers who perform services for us within and outside of Australia. Generally, we will only disclose your personal information to these persons in connection with facilitation of your travel booking and/or to enable the performance of administrative and technical services by them on our behalf. Where we disclose your personal information to any person (including all overseas recipients), you agree that we will not be required to ensure that person's compliance with Australian privacy laws or otherwise be accountable for how they handle your personal information. When used above, "disclose" includes transferring, sharing, sending, or otherwise making available or accessible to another person or entity.
